∴ On March 22nd, 1855 Sergeant Gardiner was Orderly Sergeant to the Field Officer on trench duty. The Russian attack was sudden and there was a momentary retirement out of the trenches. Gardiner hastened to the threatened point, rallied the men, led them against the enemy and regained the position at the point of the bayonet. On June 18th he remained in front of the enemy, encouraging others to do the same, taking shelter in shell holes and making a parapet of the dead bodies of his comrades, from which they kept up a deadly fire until their ammunition was exhausted.

PRICED CATALOGUES

of Coins and Medals.

*A*FTER each sale these catalogues are issued with the prices realised printed in the margin opposite each lot, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to values.

The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading.

On the average we issue twelve Coin and Medal catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about a week after the date of sale and the subscription is
